The Bank and the Community

The Bank is a place of Public Trust.

No other Business is surrounded by such safeguards.

Protection it gives money extends far beyond steel vaults and holdup insurance.

Government supervises the Bank. Its officers and employees are carefully selected, their fidelity is further guaranteed by their being bonded. The directors are held strictly accountable to the law.

Were Banks to cease functioning all Business would come to a stop.

The Bank—promoter of Thrift and Happiness.

WHY DO SO MANY PEOPLE NEGLECT THEIR EYES?

It seems strange that people who are so careful about their eyes do not seem to act when action is the only way. In thousands of cases people know that their eyes are failing them, yet they never do anything about them for years. If you are one of those, it is time now to take steps to correct them. They would not differentiate a prominent optician from a druggist who has no optician service available to him.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO FIGURE OUT THE COST OF NOT APPEARING AT YOUR BEST? IT COSTS YOU MORE THAN WHAT YOU NEED

It costs a man more not to look neater than it does to buy the clothes he is in need of. Everything that is worth doing in the world comes to the man who at all times appears at his best. Give your appearance a chance to help you win. Visit the tailor.

MAKE KAISER EXAMPLE FOR FUTURE AGES

Punishment Should Be Warning to Other Would-Be Napoleons.

BY WILLIAM L. MALLARD,
INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The trial of William Hohenlohe before an international tribunal for a "supreme offence" against international morality and the sanctity of treaties and for plotting war which brought grief to millions, is designed not only to punish the former war lord but also as a warning to any would-be Napoleon to the future.

DRUG INDICTMENT.

This information came today from Sir Frederick Pollock, the famous British law expert and privy councilor who drew up the original draft of the indictment against the ex-emperor.

This statement was made in the eve of the departure of Sir Frederick from London. It was stated at his office that he would be absent for about a week, but his whereabouts and the nature of his mission were not revealed. It is believed that his trip is in connection with plans for the extradition for the one-time ruler of Germany from Holland and his ultimate trial.

PURPOSE BROAD.

"This is not an action against the former German emperor so much as an effort to end the possibility of an untried person carrying out such policies in the future as those held by the ex-emperor."

The allies are not interested primarily in the ex-emperor as a person or his personal punishment. There are questions involved bigger than that. The actual thing sought is the trial and the branding for all time of an international idea—the power of one single man to declare war against the world.

"Precedents must be established preventing this in the future."
